

HOW TO BECOME A DESIGN JUDGE

1. Must be a member of the North American Gladiolus Council in good standing.
2. Must attend the school for Design Judging held in conjunction with the convention. School will be at least four hours of comprehensive design teaching.
3. Must pass a written test with a score of at least 70%.
4. Must pass a scoring test of three arrangements with in 5 points above or below the master score sheet of each arrangement.
5. Student is responsible for paying for the materials needed. Design booklet, notebook, etc.
6. Must make at least two arrangements for NAGC Convention design competition.
7. Must earn points for judging two shows with a panel of judges having a Student Judge Application form filled out.
8. Accredited Design Judges from other plant societies will be accepted without taking the school provided they submit proof of qualifications.
9. Must take a refresher course every 3 years to maintain judging accreditation. (CD is available)
10. National Judge Accreditation Chair will keep records of every judge.