To the Registrar,

Dear Sir:

I believe this/these to be a new variety, an accurate description of which is recorded on this application.

I agree that in accepting this variety name for registration, the International Gladiolus Registry does not give any guarantee, either expressed or implied, against the use of the name by any other person outside of its control, nor does it assume any responsibility as to the qualities of the variety so registered.

I agree that the cultivar photo and application materials submitted with this Registration Application Form become the property of NAGC and can be used in any manner deemed fitting by NAGC.

I do further agree to accept and adhere to the Registration Rules of the International Gladiolus Registry.
